GLOBAL ANGLICAN FUTURE CONFERENCE

Primate prays for October conference to be 'a manifestation of the presence of God'

The Chairman of GAFCON, Archbishop Eliud Wabukala of Kenya has issued a pastoral letter, three weeks before the start of GAFCON 2013 in Nairobi. Referring to the attack on the Westgate Shopping centre in the city, the Archbishop said "We have seen a manifestation of evil in this city, but my prayer for our conference is that it will be a manifestation of the presence of God in the power of the Holy Spirit. We are gathering to be inspired afresh from the Scriptures by the love of God which has triumphed over evil by the power of the cross and compels us to reach all nations. Nairobi will become the focus not of bad news, but of the good news of the gospel of God." Delegates will fly in from other parts of Africa as well as Europe, the UK, Asia, the Pacific and South America.

(Archbishop Eliud Wabukala)

GAFCON and its Global Fellowship of Confessing Anglicans is a world-wide movement of provinces, dioceses, churches, organisations and individual Anglican Christians whose goal is to help reform, heal and revitalise the Anglican Communion and expand its mission to the world. We confess the faith of Christ crucified, stand firm for the gospel in the global and Anglican context, and affirm the Jerusalem Statement and Declaration, to guide the movement for the future.

Please Pray for:

- * those affected by the Westgate and Pakistan attacks
- * peace and safety for all delegates and for the city of Nairobi
- * conference organisers as they complete final arrangements
- * Media coverage of GAFCON/GFCA
