

GAFCON

GLOBAL ANGLICAN FUTURE CONFERENCE

Nairobi 2013 only a week away Final preparations as Primates meet

The Chairman of GAFCON, Archbishop Eliud Wabukala will welcome delegates to Nairobi in a week's time. "We will come together with a determination to be obedient to the words of the Lord Jesus Christ 'Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all I have commanded you.' (Matthew 28:19) the Archbishop said. The meeting will be preceded by a gathering of the GAFCON primates from some of the world's largest Anglican provinces, who will discuss and pray, and then go on to join delegates at the conference venue, All Saints Cathedral. The Archbishop of Canterbury is making a flying visit to Nairobi and will speak with the Primates before the conference opens on Monday 21st October.

(Photo: All Saints Conference Centre)

This is the final conference preview prayer letter. All conference news will be posted on the GAFCON website. Keep up to date with news on your mobile or computer at gafcon.org and join the GFCA at fca.net. GAFCON and its Global Fellowship of Confessing Anglicans is a world-wide movement of provinces, dioceses, churches, organisations and individual Anglican Christians whose goal is to help reform, heal and revitalise the Anglican Communion and expand its mission to the world.

Please Pray for:

- * final preparations for the conference
- * safety in travel for all delegates
- * God to bless our time together
- * the Primates Council as they lead the movement

